

Edinburgh Sports Club members' General Election lunch

with Peter Duncan and Andy Maciver

Friday 9th June at 14:00

Dear Member,

Edinburgh Sports Club is pleased to invite you, your colleagues and clients to our first ever General Election lunch, specifically aimed at the professional community in our membership.

With the UK's vote to leave the European Union, and the ongoing drive by the Scottish Government for a second independence referendum, the outcome of the forthcoming snap General Election will have profound implications for our politics and economy.

By lunchtime on Friday 9th June, we will know the result. But what happens next?

With lots of questions around Brexit, Scottish Independence and the fate of Jeremy Corbyn up in the air, members will have the opportunity, over a three course lunch with wine, to get insight and analysis from two of Scotland's most renowned political commentators, Andy Maciver and Peter Duncan - co-founders of prominent strategic communications consultancy, Message Matters.

This event, an excellent entertaining or business development opportunity for members, is demand-led and will only run if there is sufficient interest. Spaces are limited, so book early to avoid disappointment.

To book a table or seat, email manager@edinburghsportsclub.co.uk, or call the club on 0131 539 7071 by Friday 2nd June.
